

Insolvency Insights

Insolvency funding presents a host of opportunities for insolvency estate representatives, litigation trustees and their counsel seeking to maximize the value of litigation claims in an insolvency estate or litigation trust for the benefit of creditors and other stakeholders.

As one of the most experienced and global litigation funders in the world, Omni Bridgeway has an exceptional ability to extend financing and litigation expertise to assist claimants in cases around the world. Please review some of our educational content including blogs, podcasts and media articles.

Recent blog posts

Using Litigation Finance for Intercreditor Litigation

Litigating an intercreditor dispute may be justifiable when there is a genuine dispute and the consequence of not challenging the proposed treatment of a claim is high. This has played out in several high-profile cases recently involving challenges by unsecured creditor committees (UCCs) to the perfection of liens asserted by secured creditors. READ MORE

Using Litigation Finance to Help Boost Unsecured Creditors' Recoveries

Omni Bridgeway can partner with unsecured creditors throughout the insolvency process, providing bespoke financing solutions at every stage. Read more about the benefits of using litigation financing as a tool during the insolvency process. READ MORE

Media articles

A Trustee's Choice: Hire Contingency Counsel or Use Litigation Funding

| LEXIS NEXIS, PRACTICE ADVISOR |

This article highlights recent case law developments concerning a party's ability to recover its legal fees from an opposing party when litigation funding is present in a case. READ MORE

Litigation Finance for Lawyers Advising Corporate Boards

| BLOOMBERG LAW |

This professional perspective discusses how corporate board members assume important fiduciary duties to the company whose management and activities they oversee, including ensuring that any material assets and expenditures are properly managed. Litigation involving the company—either as plaintiff or defendant—can often implicate these duties, since material assets and expenditures may be involved.

Litigation funding can afford some relief by helping to defray material expenses and protect material assets.

READ MORE

Third-Party Financing and the Ability to Recover Fees from an Opposing Party

| LEXIS NEXIS |

This article highlights recent case law developments concerning a party's ability to recover its legal fees from an opposing party when litigation funding is present in a case. READ MORE

Portfolio Litigation Funding and its Use by Insolvent Estates

| LEXIS NEXIS |

This practice note discusses the benefits of portfolio litigation funding where the debtor's estate may lack the resources to fully pursue litigation, needs working capital, or wishes to de-risk litigation outcomes. READ MORE

Podcasts

Forecasting the Future of Litigation Finance, Episode #5 Parts 1 and 2

Ken Epstein and other panel members examine the current state of litigation funding applicability in insolvency situations and discusses an illustrative case study.

→ LISTEN TO THE PODCAST

Insights on Dispute Finance for Insolvency-Related Claims

In this podcast, Omni Bridgeway's Tom Glasgow and insolvency practitioner Luke Furler discuss dispute finance for insolvency-related claims in Singapore and more widely within the Asia-Pacific region.

→ LISTEN TO THE PODCAST

Interview with Omni Bridgeway Insolvency Funding Specialist, Ken Epstein

Ken Epstein discusses the options litigation finance presents for parties with limited capital to pursue their high-value litigation claims and how it benefits trustees, receivers and debtors.

→ LISTEN TO THE PODCAST

Curious to know more?

Omni Bridgeway is the global leader in financing and managing legal risks, with expertise in civil and common law legal and recovery systems, and with operations around the world. Omni Bridgeway offers dispute finance from case inception through to post-judgment enforcement and recovery. Since 1986, it has an established record of financing disputes and enforcement proceedings around the world.

To learn more about Omni Bridgeway's litigation funding and enforcement capabilities, visit our Company Insights. While there, explore our recent podcasts, blog posts, and videos. Or contact us for a consultation to learn more about the ways we can help you pursue meritorious claims.