

Law Firm Financing Solutions

The Global Leader in Financing and Managing Legal Risks

Smooth cash flows

Omni Bridgeway's non-recourse portfolio funding helps law firms mitigate risk and grow their business by enabling them to extend flexible fee arrangements to clients.

Our portfolio financing is especially favored by firms seeking to offer contingency fee arrangements while using our financing to cover a portion of the amount they would earn from the portfolio cases if they were handling them on an hourly fee basis (essentially converting a "full" contingency fee matter into a "hybrid" matter).

Since our financing is non-recourse, the firms retain the funded amounts even if the portfolio cases ultimately are unsuccessful.

This approach allows firms to avail themselves of opportunities to earn more than they would earn in hourly-fee matters, without being overexposed. Using funding can position firms to earn higher revenues than they could earn by handling the cases without funding.

Omni Bridgeway's portfolio funding for law firms also provides the added benefit of enabling firms and lawyers to grow their practices by offering non-hourly fee arrangements to a broader spectrum of clients.

How it Works

Omni Bridgeway invests a portion of the fee budgets in three or more cases being handled by the firm on a contingency. When the firm collects its contingency fees from one or more of the cases, it pays Omni Bridgeway a multiple of the amount funded, with this return cross-collateralized across the cases.
