New Australian Single Party Investment

IMF Bentham Limited (IMF) announces that it will unconditionally fund a new investment through its Australian investment vehicles, Fund 2 and Fund 3. For further information on Fund 2 and Fund 3 please refer to IMF's previous announcement of 3 October 2017.

The new matter involves a dispute between members of the Santanol Group, which owns and operates Indian sandalwood plantations in the Kimberley region of Western Australia. IMF has agreed to fund the plaintiffs' claims commenced in the Supreme Court in August 2017. The claims currently being advanced by the plaintiffs against one or more of the defendants are for statutory oppression, breach of contract, knowing inducement of breach of contract and unconscionable conduct.

The plaintiffs' case is being conducted by HWL Ebsworth.
